

Legal Template Use Guide — Bookkeeping Business OS

IMPORTANT NOTICE

The legal documents in this system are generic educational templates. They do not constitute legal advice. Have a qualified attorney review before commercial use.

DOCUMENTS INCLUDED

- Service_Agreement_Template.docx — Full contract covering services, fees, liability, termination
- Engagement_Letter_Template.docx — Shorter alternative for simpler client relationships
- Confidentiality_Policy.docx — Internal policy for protecting client financial data
- Data_Security_Policy.docx — Procedures for securing sensitive client information

KEY CUSTOMIZATION STEPS

1. Replace all [bracketed placeholders] with your specific information
2. Review fee amounts, payment terms, and guarantee language
3. Confirm governing law matches your state
4. Have a licensed attorney review before signing with any client
5. Store signed copies securely — 7-year retention recommended

IMPORTANT DISCLAIMERS

- You are a bookkeeper, not a tax professional — be clear about scope
- Never provide tax advice — refer clients to their CPA for tax questions
- Errors & Omissions (E&O;) insurance is strongly recommended
- Review your state's licensing requirements for bookkeeping services
